Fresh & Healthy is the Theme for the Park Cafe

Manager Gilbert Morales prepares fresh salmon

Gilbert Morales has guided the Park Café from coffee and Panini sandwiches to one of the freshest and healthiest breakfast spots in the West Valley. The Park Cafe was opened three years ago when Gilbert noticed that there was an absence of unique non-chain eateries around Litchfield Park. Located on Old Litchfield Road, it is a popular spot for guests from the Wigwam Resort. The café is owned by Peter Mahoney, who also owns the Old Pueblo Café.

Breakfast at the Park Café is known for their sloppy omelet with Mexican sauces. Gilbert calls this his Mexican fusion. He was born in Mexico where he got his start at his mother's restaurant. Gilbert helped his mother with busing tables and preparing the sauces for the traditional Mexican dishes.

Soon after he moved to Los Angeles where he worked at and managed a number of restaurants. While there, he and his brother operated an Italian restaurant at Wilshire and LaBrea. To our benefit, Gilbert's wife had a relative in Phoenix and the rest is history. He and his wife, and their two children now live in Glendale. He says someday they will move to Litchfield Park.

Fresh and healthy is the theme for the Park Café. For example, instead of hash browns, he prepares a mix of organic, sweet, and red potatoes. To keep things fresh, Gilbert gets his food every other day. Lunch favorites include blackened salmon with mango salsa. Breakfast is served all day and there is a full service espresso bar, beer and wine. Lunch includes salads, burgers and Panini's.

Gilbert has taken all the best parts of his restaurant experience in Los Angeles and Mexico City and has combined it into the Park Café. The menu is new. Over the past year, Gilbert had a different special every day. The favorites are now included on the menu. The décor is unique and reflects the historic farming tradition of Litchfield Park. When the weather cools, breakfast is served outside along beautiful Old Litchfield Road. The Park Café and its extraordinary owner, Peter, and manager, Gilbert, make Litchfield Park a special place to live or visit.
