Preschool Playland Provides a Peaceful Place for Parents

Goldilocks Opens May 1st

Chris Fullerton has not just opened a new business, she has started a revolution. She is creating a new way for women with young children to work while still being completely present in their children's lives while attending to their educational and developmental needs without sacrificing their roles as stay at home moms. This is made possible because all of Goldilocks employees are encouraged to bring their small children to work with them.

Originally from Boston, Chris moved to Arizona with her family as a school aged child. After college Chris worked primarily as a refugee resettlement social worker. She developed a strong interest in the cultures of the clients she served and began to travel to some of the countries that the refugees came from. After a trip to a refugee camp on the Sudanese border in 2001, she realized that her calling was to serve in Africa. During her 20's she travelled and lived in East Africa, eventually marrying a man from Ethiopia who now works as a nurse at the VA retirement home in Phoenix.

Goldilocks Owner Chris Fullerton & her daughter Eden

The philosophy of Goldilocks is that women should not have to choose between having a family and having a meaningful career. The current paradigm of the American corporate work structure makes it challenging to find a work/life balance with small children. Therefore, Goldilocks has decided to change that, on a grassroots level. Goldilocks employees enjoy their work outside the home, while spending their day with their children in an environment that was created specifically for them. Goldilocks employees also have degrees in education, social work and sports medicine.

Employees are highly educated and motivated. While not a preschool or daycare, Goldilocks is committed to providing a setting that is developmentally appropriate for a preschool child. With dance, art, music classes and weekly story time, there is something for everyone. With over 15 unique play stations in an enchanted forest setting you will find Goldilocks to be different than any preschool play land in Phoenix. Open 9:00-3:30 M-F, Saturday is reserved for birthday parties and Sundays for private facility rental by the hour, so you can meet up as a private playgroup or even have a baby shower! Also not to be missed are the Summer Art classes taught by Alayne Weathersby, Art teacher at Litchfield Elementary School, or the one of a kind mommy and me product line, Iris and Auringonkukka, handmade by a local Finnish mom.

Goldilocks is unique and special, just like Litchfield Park and its residents. When you enter Goldilocks you can feel the love and passion Chris Fullerton brings to her business. For more information about Goldilocks, the website is goldilocksplayland.com and phone is 602-446-5934. This is a tremendous resource for the community. Check it out in the Plaza in the Park Shopping Complex at the Southwest corner of Litchfield and Camelback, and support Chris with her new endeavor.
