Enjoy Great Food, Drink and Sports at The Lazy Palm

The Lazy Palm is Litchfield Park's newest Sports Grill. Owners Joe Marinello and Gabe Spano opened the LP on August 26th as a place with great food, cold beer, quality staff and reasonable pricing right in downtown Litchfield Park. Joe and Gabe wanted to do something for the community. Gabe grew up in Litchfield Park and Joe lives in Palm Valley.

Joe and Gabe have been long time friends. Joe comes from Yonkers, New York where he started his career in corporate security. With lots of travel, Joe tired of the security business and ended up in Arizona helping his friend and current Litchfield Park resident, Norman Clayton with security at a bar in Avondale. One night they were short a bartender and Joe filled in. That was the beginning of Joe's career with bars and restaurants. Joe moved on to a night club in Glendale and a sports bar. Joe then partnered with John Upshaw at the Metro Sports Bar in Phoenix four years ago. John has been an invaluable advisor to Joe in opening the Lazy Palm. Co-owner, Gabe Spano is an active community member in Litchfield Park where he is a member of the West Valley Mavericks and has been successful as a banker and real estate investor.

Joe gets his "failure is not an option" attitude from his mother. He says that you have to constantly be thinking of new ways to improve and keep things fresh. Joe describes himself as a very loyal and dedicated family man true to his Italian American East Coast upbringing. When TAPS went out of business, Joe and Gabe jumped at the chance to do something special in downtown Litchfield Park.

Joe self-identifies as a "no BS guy, who tells it straight". He says the competition for the lease was stiff. He said they would provide a grill that would be a "step above" with a clean upscale family environment and big on serving the community. The grill is packed on Sunday for football with regulars and families feasting on great food and beverages. The place is spotless, including the bathrooms. They are also gearing up for the many events and festivals in the downtown Litchfield Park.

The menu is not typical for a sports bar. They have Philly cheese steaks with top-quality beef, steamed mussels and a healthy chicken wrap. Beer specials like Four Peaks Pumpkin Porter recently sold for $2.50 a pint. Sunday breakfast includes fluffy yet crispy Belgium waffle with apple wood smoked bacon served with crispy fried chicken. This is all topped with Chef Tommy's Bourbon Maple reduction. Hump Day specials include a $6.99 Caprese salad.

For extra special food, cold drinks and a family-friendly atmosphere, check out the Lazy Palm Sports Grill.

SHOP, DINE AND WORSHIP IN LITCHFIELD PARK

by Darryl H. Crossman, City Manager

Did you know that when you shop and dine in your hometown of Litchfield Park, a portion of the sales tax you pay provides revenue to the City of Litchfield Park for expenses of municipal services such as: park maintenance, road maintenance, Recreation Center activities, recreation programs, police contract, code compliance, and other operational needs? Did you know that there is only one grocery store located in the City of Litchfield Park? If you guessed Albertsons, you are correct!

Since our community is much smaller than others in the Valley, and does not have a local property tax, sales tax revenue has a great impact on our City budget. I realize that our City does not offer shopping and dining to meet all needs, but I would encourage you to help keep your tax dollars at home by shopping and dining in Litchfield Park whenever possible. Keep in mind the sales tax you pay in Litchfield Park stays in Litchfield Park to help pay for City services. Help us keep Litchfield Park sales tax in our own community.
