Warm Up at Ribbons Tea House

Local Family Opens Downtown Venue

Arlene and Joel Mounce are people of many talents and interests. As they open Ribbons Tea House in the downtown area, they begin another chapter for their family in Litchfield Park.

Arlene was born and raised in the Philippines, moving to San Francisco as a young adult in 1988. Her father worked for the US Navy in the Philippines giving the family the ability to relocate to the US. Arlene finished college in the Bay Area and started work in the downtown financial district. She then shifted to the software industry and started a family. With the flexibility of working from home, Arlene and Joel moved to Arizona in 2006 for a more family-oriented lifestyle.

After moving to Arizona she began working for Lockheed Martin, the manufacturers of the new F-35 fighter jet at Luke AFB. She has been with them for 8 years, working some of the time in Colorado. She currently balances running Ribbons with her work at Lockheed Martin in IT.

Joel's career is as varied as Arlene's. Joel grew up in the Mission District of San Francisco. His career started in the printing business where his employer sent him to the Graphics Arts Institute in San Francisco. He eventually became involved in sales and quality assurance. In his leisure time, Joel became very involved in cars and racing. Friends from racing connected him with the auto industry where he began working for Toyota. That work continued to Arizona where Joel worked as a service manager for two different dealerships.

Joel, Arlene & their family

With three children, and Arlene traveling a lot for work, Joel adapted his work schedule to spend more time at home. That led to work at the Macy's distribution center in Goodyear. Joel also balances this job to working at Ribbons.

Arlene and Joel love to see people's reaction to tasting the tea. They have over 30 types. Joel says, "Tea is something people want, not need, so when they get it, they are happy." They love meeting new people every day. Ribbons Tea House is special because of the service and variety of teas. Each cup is steeped individually. They also have bakery goods prepared on-site, along with sandwiches and ice cream.

Arlene and Joel are self-confessed "foodies." Some of the bakery items are family recipes from the Philippines. Their hours are Monday to Thursday and Saturday 11:00-7:00 PM, Friday 1:00-7:00 PM and Sunday noon-4:00 PM. They are located downtown on Honeysuckle, west of the Blu Sushi and the Brewery.

SHOP, DINE AND WORSHIP IN LITCHFIELD PARK

by Darryl H. Crossman, City Manager

Did you know that when you shop and dine in your hometown of Litchfield Park, a portion of the sales tax you pay provides revenue to the City of Litchfield Park for expenses of municipal services such as: park maintenance, road maintenance, Recreation Center activities, recreation programs, police contract, code compliance, and other operational needs? Did you know that, presently, there is only one grocery store located in the City of Litchfield Park? If you guessed Albertsons, you are correct! However, in summer 2016, the City will be welcoming Fry's Marketplace to be located on the corner of Camelback and Litchfield Roads.

Since our community is much smaller than others in the Valley, and does not have a local property tax, sales tax revenue has a great impact on our City budget. I realize that our City does not offer shopping and dining to meet all needs, but I would encourage you to help keep your tax dollars at home by shopping and dining in Litchfield Park whenever possible. Keep in mind the sales tax you pay in Litchfield Park stays in Litchfield Park to help pay for City services. Help us keep Litchfield Park sales tax in our own community.
